

Teaching & Communicating Effectively

Do What We Have Done!

- Background
- Literary Context
- Structure and Grammar
- Words
- PLUS... Solid Principles of Exegesis and Hermeneutics

When We Teach, We Want To Be...

- Accurate
- Sufficient
- Relevant
- Interesting
- Memorable
- Real
- Revealing
- Practical

How Do We Keep Their Interest...

- Tell what they thought they knew
- Tell them what they didn't know
- Tie it together – the big picture
- Facts and details
- Human interest
- Explain words & meanings
- Clearly state the A.I.M.
- Make simple, practical application

To Do: Collect Resources

1. Relentless collector
2. Eye for usefulness
3. Standard reference works
4. Specialized reference works
5. Pre-packaged materials
6. Bible software
7. Internet

To Do: Distribute Resources

- Library / Reading Room
- Recommended Reading List
- Book Table
- Handouts with Lessons

To Do: Teaching Methodologies

- PowerPoint
- Storytelling
- Public Reading
- Memorized Recitation
- Simple Dramatic Presentation
- Props
- Scholars & Experts
- Commercial Video & Audio
- Commercial Movies

Final Thoughts...

- Every sermon and every Bible class should have something of EBS in it
- Keep notes & notebooks, plan ahead, be resourceful
- Explain and apply truth
- Motivate and equip others
